REMARKS

On 08-17-2020 at 2017 hours, I, Officer Haddad, responded to an address in Middletown, regarding a domestic dispute. The caller had indicated that her nineteen year old son was out of control and punching the walls.

Upon arrival, I spoke to Victim # 1 who stated that her son Jacob Locklear is schizophrenic and is not presently taking any medications. She stated that he had a temper tantrum and starting punching the walls. He punched holes in several walls. Victim # 1 also stated that Locklear was throwing glasses and chairs around the house. Victim # 1 then stated that Locklear was clenching his fists when he looked at her and said, " Do you want to get hurt ? " Victim # 1 stated that she took this as a threat and she called the police. Victim # 1 did sign a written statement.

I did see a broken chair and a great deal of broken glass on the kitchen floor. I did see at least one hole in a wall and Locklear's knuckles on his right hand were swollen and bloody.

I spoke to Jacob Locklear and he admitted that he had lost his temper, and had punched the wall several times. He stated that he did throw chairs and glasses, but that he did not remember asking Victim # 1 if she wanted to get hurt.

Locklear was issued Misdemeanor Summons # MC 540826 for the charge of Breach Of Peace in The Second Degree, 53a-181. He was issued a court date of 08-18-2020. A conditions of release family violence form was filled out. It was faxed to dispatch to be entered into Locklear was then transported to Middlesex Hospital by Hunter's Ambulance where I prepared a Police Emergency Examination Paper for him.

REMARKS

On August 15 2020, I was dispatched to The Home Depot, 909 Washington St, on report of a shoplifting that had just occurred. Dispatch stated the vehicle was observed as a red pick up truck which turned eastbound on Washington St. This information was provided by Loss Prevention.

The vehicle was a red Chevrolet Colorado, color red, with misuse CT reg The CT reg was the old blue tag. The operator was identified as Anthony Thompson, by CT license number . ._, which came back as suspended. Thompson stated the vehicle was unregistered and had no insurance.
