Lieutenant Heather Desmond

For Immediate release

February 18, 2010

Today at approximately 3:45pm The Middletown Police Department received a routine call from Aetna Security at 1000 Middle St stating that a young female child was walking around.

The female child was located by a utility worker in Aetna's parking lot.

The child was transported to Hartford Children's Hospital and is expected to be released soon. The child's father is with her at the hospital.

The Child located at Aetna was confirmed to be the missing child issued in the Amber Alert earlier today from Swansea Massachusetts.

Investigators on scene secured a security video of the Aetna parking lot.

At this time the investigation in on going and has been turned over to our Special Investigations Unit who will be working in conjunction with Massachusetts State Police.

Anyone with any information regarding this case should call the Middletown Police Department at 860-344-3200.
