

On 6/27/10 the Middletown Police Department received a third party complaint regarding a past assault. The witness stated that he was on the phone with the victim and that a male then got on the phone asking who was on the phone, then the line went dead. The male was later identified as the accused, Robert McLellan. The witness later saw the victim, who had bruises on her neck and wrists. The victim told the witness that the accused, Robert McLellan tried to choke her and threatened to kill her. Officers then went to the victim's house and spoke with her regarding the incident with McLellan. The victim stated that McLellan somehow got into her apartment, she told McLellan to leave because there was a restraining order against him. McLellan then grabbed her cell phone, pushed her into the bathroom and held the door shut. McLellan then entered the bathroom, threatened to kill her and grabbed her neck. The victim was able to get her cell phone back and McLellan left.

The victim had visible bruising on her neck and both arms.

McLellan was located in the area and arrested. McLellan was held on a $50,000 bond and given a court date of 6/28/10.
